

May 26, 1939.

Mr. Ed. Gottlieb,
509 Market Street,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Gottlieb:

First of all Abe contacted Turner, in fact, he worked our game yesterday along with Forbes and Mc Crary. We will have he and Forges Saturday and Sunday. Does this mean that he will start on salary beginning Saturday, please let me know about this.

I am enclosing you some correspondence from the Douglas Hotel, I did not answer it, as I do not care to go on record as having too much to say about this bill. Can you straighten it out with McCrary and urge him to pay it, or do you think we should pay the bill and deduct it from his salary?

Please make some arrangements for the Owners to get in Yankee Stadium to the promotions without paying. I see where we are going to have a doubleheader between Brooklyn and the Giants to buck on July 2nd.

The Courier this week had the standings of the League all wrong, they apparently did not receive the results of the second and third games between the Eagles and Stars, and they had the Yankees credited with one more win than Semler claims. I certainly wish you would take some steps to do something about getting these results to the Papers properly. It seems to me the plan we had worked out was a very good one, I do not know why we could not get the co-operation of all the Members.

What is your final decision about Secretary's salary and Phila Stars dues. Will appreciate hearing from you.

Yours very truly,

EM:CCJ